

Position about the Reactor - a series of master classes, seminars, intensives and workshops within the framework of the International Forum of Innovative Technologies FIT-M 2021

1. General Provisions

1.1. This Regulation determines the procedure and regulations for holding a series of master classes, seminars, intensives and workshops within the framework of the International Forum of Innovative Technologies FIT-M 2021 (hereinafter - the Reactor), their methodological support, the rules for the participation of mentors with qualifications and experience to transfer skills and abilities technical specialists, scientists and leaders of educational organizations.

1.2. The main goals and objectives of the Reactor are:

- increasing the level of professional competence of researchers of research and educational organizations, technical specialists, engineers and managers of industrial enterprises in the field of application of modern IT solutions in the practice of scientific, educational, engineering and management activities;
- exchange of experience in the practical activities of IT specialists, research scientists, process engineers, designers and industrial businessmen, whose activities are aimed at using information technologies in the management, organization and improvement of the efficiency of their own organizations;
- the formation of professional skills in the implementation of the tasks of supporting the intellectual, creative, social development of specialists and workers in the context of the interaction of modern information technologies with professional activities and the systemic organization of labor processes.

1.3. The reactor is carried out:

1.3.1. FEDERAL STATE AUTONOMOUS EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION «NATIONAL RESEARCH UNIVERSITY "HIGHER SCHOOL OF ECONOMY"» (INN 7714030726, KPP 770101001, address: 101000, Moscow, Myasnitskaya street, 20);

1.3.2. LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY "ANNA SYSTEMS" (TIN 5010049861, KPP 501001001, PSRN 1155010000694, address: 141981, Moscow region, Dubna, May 9 street, house 7B, building 2, office 10).

1.4. To organize and conduct the Reactor, an organizing committee functions International Innovation Forum FIT-M 2021 (hereinafter - the Organizing Committee). The composition of the Reactor Organizing Committee is formed from representatives of scientists, IT specialists, engineers and managers

2. Goals and objectives

2.1. Support for professional development in the application of modern IT solutions in research, engineering, industrial and business management practice;

2.2. Establishing creative and business contacts between participants and increasing their professional level in the process of communication and exchange of experience;

2.3. Development of interregional and international cooperation, expansion of contacts, scientific, cultural and business ties;

2.4. Involvement of the Reactor participants in the achievements of modern IT technologies, in the scientific and engineering work of individual authors and science in general;

2.5. Creation of a publicly accessible scientific and technological space for the interaction of various types of technologies, business and the state

3. Procedure and conditions of conducting

3.1. Applications for participation in the Reactor are accepted until December 15, 2021.

3.2. The number of participants is limited and agreed with the Reactor Organizers (the application is submitted on the official page <https://fit-m.org/reactor>).

3.3. Reactor participants:

- could conduct seminars, master classes, workshops and intensives on their own declared topic, indicated in the application on the page <https://fit-m.org/reactor>. All designated formats are scheduled in time and indicated in the Forum program;

- Participants inform the Organizers in advance about the need for provision or independently provide themselves with the necessary technical materials and equipment.

3.4. The organizers of the Congress provide:

- transfer and service (according to the Forum program);

- premises for storing technical equipment, materials.

3.5. Rewarding of participants. All participants of the Reactor are awarded with Diplomas, commemorative souvenirs, gifts from the partners of the Forum.

CONTACT DETAILS:

E-mail: info@fit-m.org

Executive Secretary of the Organizing Committee - Tim Kham.